Summer Reading Season Special Offer - Discounted to $5.95 - Regular price $9.95. The creation stories of ancient civilizations worldwide relate that their progenitors came from the stars. Native Americans recount that their antecedents were The Sky People. The builders of Teotihuacan describe their gods as having descended from the heavens. Egyptian texts speak of their bringers of knowledge coming from Sahu and Sopdit (Orion and Sirius). The pre-Tibetan Zhang Zhung, the Maya, the pre-Incans, the Sumerians, and so many others, all express precisely the same story in diverse symbolic languages their ancestors came from the stars, bringing advanced knowledge and the gift of civilization. These cultures were greatly separated both geographically and chronologically, yet their creation stories are strikingly similar. What could explain this? Throughout Nepal, Tibet, Bhutan and the Himalayan regions of India, there has endured an extraordinary ancient legend of celestials who, having arrived in antediluvian times, still dwell in a concealed inner region of the vast wilderness of the Great Himalayan Range. In an esoteric treatise composed by an early Tibetan Buddhist, Ensapa Lobsang Dondrup, the Third Panchen Lama revealed that he had visited a hidden realm deep in the Himalayas, and referred to the enlightened beings he met there, in Tibetan, as the Ri-ih-a-mo, or mountain goddesses. A remarkably similar experience is found as recently as the 1700s in a sutra written by the esteemed Sixth Panchen Lama, Lobsang Palden Yeshe. Transcribed directly from the archived field notes and journals of explorer M.G. Hawking's five years in the Himalayan regions of Nepal and Tibet, this book contains detailed descriptions of three encounters Hawking and his companions experienced with what they believe were these fabled mountain goddesses, providing unprecedented, first-hand accounts of the remarkable knowledge they revealed. During Hawkings second and third encounters with the Ri-ih-a-mo, they disclosed profound revelations about our Universe, our planet, and our true nature, revelations that can greatly assist in understanding ourselves, our world, its true history, and our role and power in creating precisely the life we desire. From the Author: The knowledge expressed in this book is an intensely profound thing that one hopes will have relevance to others, will offer them insight and guidance, will increase their personal knowledge and power, will be validated by their experience, or, at the very least, will stimulate them in their disagreement to search further on their own. The viewpoints expressed by the Ri-ih-a-mo revealed the search of a species and culture at a particular stage of its evolution. In this it reflects a widely emerging pattern in our own culture as well, that of a search for direction in the Universe a reawakening of a seeking begun by the original pre-Socratic philosophers, one that goes further back than even the roots of religion the search for a connection with our origins and power in the Cosmos that gave rise to us and within which we continue the creation our individual lives. An unprecedented and extraordinary account that is inspirational, thought provoking, and richly enlightening, this book will remain in your heart and mind long after the last words have been read.
